For Bay Area Residents
Living with HIV/AIDS

What is HIPP?

HIPP stands for the HIV/AIDS Insurance Protection Project. Simply put, HIPP is designed to assist people living with HIV/AIDS who have legal issues related to their insurance. Insurance is defined in the broadest possible sense and includes all private and publicly provided insurance.

Issues may involve disputes with an insurance company or employer concerning claims, levels of coverage, pre-existing conditions and denials and/or terminations of coverage. HIPP can also help to answer policy and benefit questions pertaining to private and publicly provided insurance so that policyholders can better understand their rights.

To be eligible for services, a client must be diagnosed with HIV/AIDS and reside in one of the seven Bay Area counties that ALRP serves: Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo, Solano and Sonoma.

Legal Representation

HIPP's full-time attorney practices exclusively in the area of insurance law. The HIPP attorney conducts a comprehensive phone consultation with each client in order to evaluate and address his or her issue. If more in-depth legal representation is required, the HIPP attorney will meet with the client to further discuss how the client may be best served.

The HIV/AIDS Insurance Protection Project (HIPP) is the only program of its kind that assists those living with HIV/AIDS with their insurance-related legal issues.

HIPP provides direct legal representation through its HIPP attorney and/or through referral to a volunteer attorney who serves on the ALRP panel. The HIPP attorney's services are all free of charge. An ALRP Panel Attorney may charge a fee, depending on the nature of the case and the income of the client.

What If You Need An Attorney?

The HIPP attorney is also available to conduct in-service presentations for staff at other agencies, employers and medical providers so that they can appropriately refer their clients. Please contact the HIPP attorney if your organization is interested in scheduling a presentation for your staff or clients.
