ALRP eNewsletter | May 2020

ALRP remains open and essential. With the communities we serve being disproportionately affected by the impacts of COVID-19, we are doubling down to assist people living with HIV/AIDS in the Bay Area who are facing legal issues related to the pandemic. Get the latest updates HERE.

Meet Katharine Butler, recipient of ALRP's 2020 James M. Wood Volunteer of the Year Award.

spotlight

Volunteer of the Year: Katharine Butler

Katharine Butler is plenty busy as a paralegal student and bartender. Yet, she dedicates countless hours every week to help provide legal services to people living with HIV/AIDS as a volunteer for ALRP. That's why we're excited to name Katharine as our 2020 Volunteer of the Year. Read more...
